

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Carbondale Historical Society and Museum was established in 1975 and has worked tirelessly to preserve the rich history of the Carbondale area on a shoestring budget. This mission is carried out with some help from the City of Carbondale and through the herculean efforts of numerous volunteers as well as those of its executive director, Dr. S. Robert Powell. Dr. Powell's encyclopedic knowledge of local history was as important to the completion of this book as the photographs themselves, and I want to thank him for his invaluable assistance on this project.

In addition to the historical society's collection, other images were provided by the Lackawanna Historical Society, the Carbondale First United Methodist Church, Robert Vandenberg, Robert McDonnell of McDonnell's Restaurant, Chief Tom Brennan of the Carbondale Fire Department, Jim Muir of Mitchell Hose Company, Francis Sarnoski, John Uram, the Carbondale Public Library, Diane Kurlansky, and Ellen O'Malley Knavey, and I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to all of them for their assistance. Also, I want to thank my parents, Jule and Robert, and my brother, Nick, for instilling in me a love of history from a very early age. Thanks as well to my friends and business partners, Alex Kelly and Steve Rusin, whose patience and understanding were crucial to the completion of this project. Special thanks to my niece, Lydia Karnick, who enthusiastically promoted this book. I also wish to thank my editor at Arcadia Publishing, Erin Vosgien, for her guidance, patience, and support. And last, but certainly not least, I want to thank my wonderful wife, Marie, and our children, Zachary and Juliette, for their love and support.

Unless otherwise noted, all images are from the collection of the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum.

Note from SRP:

Shown above is the Acknowledgments page from Jim Racht's book.

Thank you, Jim, for acknowledging my involvement in the creation of this book on Carbondale, in the Images of America series.